Senators author legislation to honor Gary Moon

The new State Route 210-Interstate 215 interchange in San Bernardino may be named in memory of Gary Moon, the former Director of Freeway Construction for SANBAG.

Gary Moon

Moon served the agency with distinction from 1990 to 2003. Soon after his retirement, he lost a short battle to cancer in October 2005.

Senators Bob Dutton and Gloria Negrete-McLeod jointly introduced Senate Concurrent Resolution 16, which is an early step in the process to name the interchange. Assemblyman Bill Emmerson also is a co-author.

SANBAG is seeking letters of support. Individuals or agency representatives who wish to write a letter endorsing the naming of the Gary Moon Memorial Interchange should send their correspondence by April 2 to:

Jennifer Franco
